

Ibero-American Animation Quirino Awards
Premios Quirino de la Animación Iberoamericana

PREMIOS QUIRINO DE LA ANIMACIÓN IBEROAMERICANA

These awards recognize the talent of the Ibero-American animation industry, generating links and networks between both sides of the ocean.

The event gathers together the blooming Latin-American industry along with the Portuguese, Andorran and Spanish industries, building a true brotherhood to develop the great market that is Ibero-America together.

Paralelly, an Ibero-American coproduction forum and an Ibero-American animation international congress take place.

Quirino Awards 2019
April 5th & 6th

Auditorio Adán Martín
Santa Cruz de Tenerife
[ Spain ]

The awards are named in honour of the creator of the first animated feature film; in 1917 Quirino Cristiani directed "El Apóstol", an Argentinian production where 58.000 drawings in 35 mm were used besides several miniatures.

SUPPORTING THE SECTOR

Ibermedia reserves a minimum of $200,000 to support animation works on the line of development in 2019 thanks to the work meeting of associations held during Quirino Awards 2018.

The Ibero-American Animation Quirino Awards joins Animation! (Argentina) and Pixelatl (Mexico) to give place to the League of Ibero-American animation. The goal shared by the three is to boost the creation and development of audiovisual projects in the region and strengthen the ties of collaboration between Ibero-American countries.

Creation of the project Ibero-American Animation White Paper that will organize a map of the sector.

COLLABORATING ASSOCIATIONS

TENERIFE, ISLAND OF ANIMATION

The Quirino Awards are celebrated in the beautiful city of Santa Cruz de Tenerife. The island has a specific tax regime that offers tax incentives. There are currently more than seven animation producers on the island.
